

Breaking the Myth on Samsung Platform

Samsung Apps

What is 'Samsung Apps' and 'Samsung Apps Seller Office'?

- Samsung Apps - Samsung Apps is open market place to connect developers and buyers. Developers are able to sell their applications (Samsung Apps for Kenya is not a paid store yet) for smartphones and users can buy free or paid applications through Samsung Apps.
- Samsung Apps Seller Office - Samsung Apps Seller Office is a service supporting application registration and sales activities to sell Apps and Games on Samsung Apps. If you sign up for Samsung Apps Seller Office, you can display free applications on Samsung Apps. Once you sign up as a commercial seller, you can sell paid applications at Samsung Apps yourself. (Samsung Apps for Kenya is not a paid store yet)

What is the consolation for the fact that "Samsung Apps for Kenya is not a paid store yet"? For the time being, and for the long term?

We are working to make Samsung Apps a paid store in July. But for the time being developers can leverage on the fact that it costs nothing to create a Samsung Apps account. That is, there are no registration fees. This is huge save for the developer.

On top of it being a double exposure opportunity for the developer, once the application is loaded onto the store successfully, we could feature the local application and developer in any marketing opportunity that comes up. Of course, this will be after we notify the developer & have them provide the necessary icons and description.

We encourage developers to keep in touch so that we can fit them into future opportunities and also keep them updated with our plans.

Can I sell my app in Samsung Apps in Kenya?

Not yet. The Samsung Apps currently available on Samsung Apps in Kenya does not allow selling of applications but we are working to make the Kenya Samsung Apps a paid store. Which means that developers can begin selling applications soon. However you can sell apps in other regions with the paid store.

You can register for a Samsung Apps seller account at <http://seller.samsungapps.com> and publish your application via Samsung Apps, the official open market place to connect developers, downloaders and buyers.

What is the Samsung Remote Test Lab?

The Remote Test Lab is a solution that enables developers to control devices remotely. Using the Remote Test Lab service, developers can test their applications on a real device. The Remote Test Lab service enables developers to access Samsung mobile devices through the web and to install and test applications on the devices.

This is not only the most effective and easiest way to test the compatibility of an application with Samsung mobile devices but also the best way to cut down on hardware costs for test devices. Interaction with the device is performed over the network in real time allowing you to comprehensively test your application before distributing it.
